RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, "Joe-Joe" Wyatt arrived 31 years ago today and quickly became the "working representative" of his maternity ward; and

WHEREAS, He planned his life at age 4, forgot to include marriage in his plans, and has now gone too far to amend; and

WHEREAS, He first came to the Legislature in 1971 and quickly gained the admiration of his colleagues and 55 pounds; and

WHEREAS, He is known for his tireless efforts to establish a green belt across from the Capitol and is a favorite of the Texas Highway Commission Czars; and

WHEREAS, He is known for his efforts to outlaw shell dredgers, obtain a legislative pay raise, and remove the Apollo 11 emblem from the House Chamber, all of which have been equally successful; and

WHEREAS, His dedication to higher education may well result in a little college for Victoria to include a law school, medical school, atomic energy research facility, and South Texas Weight Watchers Chapter; and

WHEREAS, Joe Wyatt's colleagues and the people of his district recognize his dedication to good state government and wish to join in honoring him on the occasion of his birthday; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 62nd Legislature, 4th Called Session, honor and congratulate Representative Joe Wyatt on this his 31st birthday and convey a collective wish for many, many more to come.
